Farmington Parks & Recreation Continues Partnership with Muddy Waters Studio for Art

Farmington, Minn., Jan. 8, 2024 – Farmington Parks and Recreation Department has continued its partnership with Muddy Waters Studio, 511 Elm St in offering art classes throughout the winter and spring.

Seasonal project classes are scheduled for January and February that include a pre-designed art-based project for all ages. January's theme is a ceramic house and will be Jan. 19 from 5-8 p.m. This class will cost $60. Theme for February is wintertime wall art. You can choose from two class options on Friday, Feb. 2 or Friday, Feb. 16. These classes cost $40 and are from 6-8 p.m.

Adult + Kid Clay Classes are also scheduled for the upcoming winter and spring months on Sunday afternoons. Sunday, Jan. 28 is themed with Valentines tea light candleholders and Sunday, Feb. 18 is a pair of hot cocoa mugs. Sunday, March 17 will be a rainbow and pot of gold dish set and Sunday, April 14 is floral inspired mini bowls! Finally, Sunday, May 19 will be ceramic garden flowers. These classes cost $80 and are scheduled from 2-4 p.m.

Farmington residents are encouraged to register online for these classes. If they haven't already created a new account in the new system RecTrac, they will need to do that first. Registration for the new system can be done at <https://webtrac.farmingtonmn.gov>.
